

Since 2005, Texas academic libraries have put their trust in Texas Digital Library to provide essential infrastructure for technology services. Below is a list of TDL's service offerings as well and the open source software behind them. Learn more about our services at tdl.org/services.

Digital Preservation Services

TDL's Digital Preservation Services include direct consulting, training at all levels, and workflow support.

Powered by | Chronopolis, DuraCloud for TDL, AWS

Subscribe to our digital preservation interest group listserv

DSpace

Digital Repository Hosting

TDL hosts digital repositories for member institutions, allowing them provide reliable online access to their scholarly and pedagogic output.

Powered by | DSpace

Subscribe to our DSpace User Group listserv

DPLA Metadata Aggregation

TDL's DPLA Aggregation Service enables institutions with digital collections to have their materials discoverable in the Digital Public Library of America.

Powered by | TxHub, DPLA

Listsers forthcoming

ETD Management

TDL is the home of the Vireo ETD Submission and Management System which addresses all steps of the ETD process.

Powered by | Vireo

Listsers reserved for ETD service users at this time.

Open Access Journals

TDL's OA Journal service empowers faculty members, libraries, and universities to produce open-access scholarly journals, ensuring the availability of important scholarship to researchers across the world.

Powered by | Open Journal Systems (OJS)

Listsers reserved for librarian liaisons and journal managers at this time.

OER Support

TDL is helping our members as well as Texas higher education students to meet their scholarly and financial challenges with our OER Support Service

Powered by | Open Education Network, Pressbooks

Subscribe to our listserv

Research Data Management

The Texas Data Repository (TDR) is a platform for publishing and sharing datasets and other data products created by faculty, staff, and students at Texas higher education institutions.

Powered by | Dataverse

Listsers reserved for TDR service liaisons at this time.